

Research Fellowships for Graduate Students in the History and Culture of Polish Jews 2018-2019

We are pleased to announce two research grants (20,000 NIS each) for graduate students based at universities or similar institutions of higher education in Poland, who are working on various aspects of the history and culture of Polish Jews.

These awards will enable graduate students (with a preference for PhD candidates) from Poland to spend one semester (three months), as visiting research fellows at Tel Aviv University. Fellows will enjoy access to university libraries and archives, as well as other academic services, and will be required to attend a language course in Hebrew ('Ulpan'). They will also be encouraged to consult with faculty from Tel Aviv University on their dissertation and to participate in periodic research seminars.

Fellows are expected to be in residence either during Autumn semester 2018 (starting October 14, 2018), or Spring semester 2019 (starting February 27, 2019).

Bursaries will be available to cover airfare.

It is the fellows' responsibility to obtain accommodation and medical insurance.

Applications should be sent to the Institute by email (polin@post.tau.ac.il) and include the following materials:

1. An updated CV (including a list of publications)
2. A brief research proposal (maximum 500 words)
3. A letter of recommendation from the department or program chair, and a letter of support from their supervisor

Deadline for submission: March 2, 2018

Applicants will be informed of the Institute's decision by March 25, 2018
